AGREEMENT

On Plan to Appeal the Eight Hour Law Submitted to Attorney-General

DETAILS NOT DISCLOSED

Santa Fe Case Further Delayed and Witnesses Held Up By Court Pending Approval of Agreement—Rumored That Enforcement of Law Would Be Postponed

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Kansas City, Mo., Nov. 24.—A tentative agreement on a test case of the Adamson law has been reached by the attorneys of the railroads and the government, who have been in conference here yesterday and today. The agreement has been forwarded to Attorney-General Gregory at Washington, and the conference here will await his action upon it. Announcement of the tentative agreement was made today but attorneys participating in the conference said they were not ready to state its terms. The hearing before Judge John C. Pollock in Kansas City, Kan., on the injunction suit brought by the Atchafalaya, Topeka & Santa Fe railroad will not be held, it was said, until final action on the agreement is taken. Meanwhile, witnesses for the government and for the Santa Fe are being detained in Judge Pollock's court.

WOULD DELAY ENFORCEMENT.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Washington, Nov. 23.—Under a tentative agreement arranged said to have been made between Department of Justice officials and railroad attorneys, the government will not insist on railroads putting into effect provisions of the Adamson act until the supreme court has determined the law's constitutionality. The measure becomes effective Jan. 1 but prosecutions for violations would be withheld. The agreement is conditional on the ability of counsel for the government and railroads, who are in Kansas City today to appear before the federal court there in the Santa Fe suit to decide on what case should be appealed to the supreme court for the test.

The agreement also would provide that railroads should not file new suits attacking the Adamson law pending the supreme court's decision and should not institute further actions if the law be held valid. It would not seek to prevent effort to obtain legislation amending the Adamson act, however.

The joint congressional investigation committee at today's session heard Charles P. Thom, counsel for the railway executives' advisory committee, continue his presentation of the railroad's ideas of legislative reforms needed to better transportation conditions.

LEGISLATIVE FIGHT IN WEST VIRGINIA; UGLY CHARGES MADE

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Charleston, W. Va., Nov. 24.—Charges of legislative robbery in connection with the special session called to take action on Governor Hatfield's legislative program, were laid before Thomas Townsend, prosecuting attorney for Kanawha county, by delegate J. L. Wolf, Republican, chairman of the special committee on investigation, appointed last night. Mr. Wolfe said this morning that about all the committee could do in this session was to place in the prosecutors' hands such information as he could later use in his official capacity, and that subpoenas for witnesses would be issued before the day closes. It was understood that some of the witnesses wanted were not strangers in Charleston. Mr. Townsend said that a dozen or more witnesses would likely be called today.

Virtually Agree On Recess of Commission; Want Agreement Signed

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Atlantic City, Nov. 24.—Without making any announcement regarding their conference the Mexican-American joint commission closed today's session but it was understood the request of the Mexicans for a recess was virtually agreed to.

It was indicated, however, that the Americans had urged the Mexicans that instead of sending one of their number to Mexico to confer with Carranza as to the advisability of their signing the general agreement providing for the withdrawal of American troops and the protection of life and property along the border, they sign the agreement now and utilize the recess for delivering the document to Carranza for his ratification.

DIES OF BURNS

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Lorain, O., Nov. 24.—Mrs. John Jimenez, 21, died today from burns sustained when she was starting a fire with coal oil.

Citizens Organize to Get Vote on New City Charter; Petitions To Be Ready Soon

The campaign is on. A half hundred citizens, every one of whom has been vitally interested in a series of addresses in the past fifteen months on the commission form of government for cities, met last night in the convention room of the courthouse and organized to circulate petitions asking council to call a special election for the proposition.

No date was proposed for the election but the matter will be carried to that point as rapidly as possible, keeping in mind the importance of properly informing the voters on the advantages of such a change.

Short talks were made at last night's meeting favoring the project, but as all of those present already were converts to the proposition, little time was devoted to such speeches.

Edward Kibler Sr., presided at the meeting and when nominations were called for, R. L. Tanneyhill proposed the name of Mr. Kibler as permanent chairman. Taking the meeting temporarily from Mr. Kibler's hands, Mr. Tanneyhill put the nomination to vote and Mr. Kibler was elected by acclamation.

E. T. Johnson was elected secretary and Walter C. Metz, treasurer by the same process. A committee consisting of Messrs E. S. Randolph, Harry Scott and Wm H. Smith was appointed to nominate five vice presidents. The committee quickly reported, nominating Wm M. Morgan, Edward Schnadt, Charles Rossell, E. M. Baugher and N. C. Sherman, and these men were elected.

Expenses incurred within the last few weeks were quickly liquidated by popular subscription and the officers were authorized to recommend an executive committee of fifteen citizens, to act with the officers in directing the campaign.

This recommendation will be reported at a meeting to be held Friday evening, December 8, in the convention room of the courthouse when petitions calling for a special election will be ready for distribution. These petitions will be circulated promptly and presented to council at the earliest possible moment. The election probably will be called for a date early in the new year.

The special election will call for a vote on two propositions. The first will decide whether a new charter shall be written and the second will select the commissioners who will write the charter. Both propositions will be voted upon at the same time. Naturally if the first proposition fails to carry, if the voters decide against the adoption of a new charter, the charter commissioners will not have any duties to perform. The two questions are voted upon at the same election to save time.

The perfecting of the organization at the next meeting will be the final step in the vigorous campaign which will be conducted, the details of which are not yet worked out. Considerable work must be done by the officials before the next meeting, in gathering data which will be necessary for the intelligent promotion of the matter.

All Newark voters were invited to last night's meeting and the same invitation is extended to future meetings. Those promoting the movement realize that the campaign will be one of education and are anxious to see all the voters in the city take interest in the matter.

SECOND BRITISH HOSPITAL SHIP SUNK IN AEGEAN

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
London, Nov. 24.—The British hospital ship Braemar Castle of 6280 tons gross bound from Saloniki to Malta with wounded has been mined or torpedoed in the Aegean sea, it was officially announced today. All on board were saved.

The disaster occurred in the Mykonos channel, the announcement states.

Mykonos is an island in the Aegean sea, distant about 100 miles from Piraeus, the port of Athens. A comparatively narrow passage separates Mykonos from the island of Tino, to the northwest.

A Reuter dispatch from Athens says the Braemar Castle was torpedoed.

SIR HIRAM MAXIM FIRE-ARM INVENTOR IS DEAD IN LONDON

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
London, Nov. 24.—Sir Hiram Maxim, inventor of the automatic system of fire arms, died at his home here early this morning.

Sir Hiram was born in Sangerville, Maine, on Feb. 5, 1840. He was a descendant of English puritans who were among the early settlers of Plymouth county, Massachusetts. After a meagre schooling he went to work in a machine shop and later was employed in the machine works of his uncle, Levi Stevens at Fitchburg, Mass. At 28 he was a draftsman in a large steamship building concern in New York City, where he invented a new locomotive head light which went into general use. He also did much to perfect automatic gas machines for lighting private houses. In 1877 he took up the question of electricity and was among the first to make dynamo electric machines and electric lamps in the United States. He took out a great many patents on electrical machinery and in 1881 was made a chevalier of the legion of honor by President Greys.

The maximum automatic gun was invented in 1884 in London and was immediately adopted by the British government, which used it in the war with Matabele. The gun fired 600 rounds a minute and caused serious slaughter that parliament seriously discussed the question as to whether its use was justified. Some years later Sir Hiram created a baronet by Queen Victoria after having become naturalized as an Englishman, invented the first smokeless powder.

In 1894 Sir Hiram Maxim invented a heavier than air flying machine which raised itself from the ground carrying a driver and passenger. This was nine years before the first practicable airplane was created by the Wright brothers. Sir Hiram's machine was a ponderous affair and broke down in its early trials. In 1915 the inventor was appointed a member of the inventions board created by the government to meet the needs of the war.

SAYS GERMANY WILL BE NO CRIPPLE IN COMING TRADE WAR

Henry H. Morgan, United States consul general at Hamburg, Germany, declares that Germany will be ready for any trade war her enemies may wage against her after the end of hostilities in the field.

"The empire expects to do a big business with America," says Morgan, "despite feelings which may have been engendered by the war. German bankers will be in a position after the war to assist trade development in the fullest measure, for Germany has sent but little money out of the country for war expenses as compared to what the allies have sent to America."

Trade Commission Reopens Paper Probe; Conspiracy Charged

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Washington, Nov. 24.—The federal trade commission today fixed Dec. 12 as the date for another public hearing on the news print paper situation and invited manufacturers, jobbers, newspaper publishers and many others interested to appear.

The commission made no announcement concerning the line of inquiry to be pursued but it is generally believed the commission will go deeper into charges on conspiracy among manufacturers to raise prices. Members of the commission would only say today the hearings would develop along certain lines to disclose certain facts.

The date was selected after conference with officers of the American newspaper publishers' association who at a previous hearing charged high prices to a manufacturers' combination. Paper makers, who attribute high prices to a scarcity of raw materials, have been at work for months now are ready to report and information they have gathered will be presented at the hearing. One publisher told the commission it was in much better position to develop facts than were the publishers.

CONQUEST

Of Little Wallachia Is Completed by Teutonic Forces, Berlin Claims

RESISTANCE IS BROKEN

Attacking Forces Threaten Rumanians From Two Directions, and Fate of the Region Is Not Indicated—Slavs Active In Dobrudja and Germans On the Defensive In Macedonia

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
London, Nov. 24.—Virtual completion of the Teutonic conquest of Little Wallachia is announced today by Berlin. Orsova and Turnu Severin on the Danube have been charged by the Austro-German forces which have broken the resistance of the Rumanians in this sector of western Rumania.

No mention is made of the booty taken or of the fate of the Rumanian forces which were defending the Orsova region. The retreat of these forces is assumed to have been cut off with the recent capture by General Falkenhayn's armies of Craiova and with it the only main line railroad leading eastward.

Pushing eastward from the Jiu valley after their capture of Craiova, the Austro-German forces are now announced as approaching the Alt valley. It is along this valley that the Rumanians apparently have elected to make their next stand. Bucharest yesterday reported a withdrawal of the Rumanians from the Jiu region and announced that they were holding their own in the Alt valley where a Teutonic force is driving from the northern Rumanian border in a converging attack with the forces from a movement.

Simultaneously a movement has been started presumably by the Bulgarians which may prove of notable importance. Bucharest reports an attempt by hostile forces to cross the Danube at Zimnita, 35 miles southwest of Giurgiu, on the railroad leading to Bucharest. This move, if successful, would mean a cutting in far behind the present Rumanian line along the Alt Zimnita is 70 miles southwest of Bucharest.

On the other hand the Russians have made a counter move in Dobrudja, Petrograd announced that they are pushing south and have reached Lake Tashaul, about 12 miles north of Constantza, which is the Black sea terminal of the railroads from Tchernavoda, and have crossed the Karpat river. Berlin announces a battle in this region, declaring, however, that the Russians were thrown back from advanced positions.

Both east and west of Monastir on the Macedonian front, the entente armies are pressing the German-Bulgarian lines hard and making further advances, according to the French war office announcement today. Berlin announces the repulse of local attacks by entente troops northwest and northeast of Monastir.

Neither Paris nor London reports any infantry activity on the front in France and Belgium. According to Berlin the British attacking in the Ancre region but failed to gain ground.

Closely following upon the sinking of the giant White Star liner Britannic in use as a British hospital ship, comes the announcement from London today of the loss of another British hospital steamer, the Braemar Castle, a 6280 ton vessel. She was mined or torpedoed in the Aegean sea while on her way from Saloniki to Malta with wounded on board, says the official statement, which reports all on board saved.

RELATIONS WITH GERMANY MAY YET BE SEVERED

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Washington, Nov. 24.—Revival of sensational rumors of renewal of ruthless submarine warfare by Germany and consequent action by the United States, were met today by the statement of officials here that the situation while delicate was absolutely unchanged and would be until the United States had gathered all the evidence on recent attacks. It made clear that a severance of diplomatic relations would follow any violation of the pledges from Berlin.

LATEST VICTIM OF GERMAN TORPEDO

The Britannic.

Fifty lives were lost and 1,106 persons were rescued when the British hospital ship Britannic was torpedoed off the island of Kea, or Kos, southeast of Athes in the Aegean sea. The Britannic was the pride of England's merchant fleet. She displaced 47,500 tons and was a sister ship of the Titanic.

Abandon Campaign for Hospital-Library Fund; Popular Support Lacking

The campaign to raise funds for the City Hospital and public library, by securing signed agreements from gas consumers to donate fifty per cent of their interest in the escrow fund for the purpose, was called off by the management last night, after reports had been made by the various team captains who have been soliciting through the business districts of the city.

The reason for this action is due to several causes, chief of which is that public sentiment is against the plan; that proper encouragement was not given the solicitors and for that reason it was hard to secure workers; it being so near Christmas and consumers believing that if the gas case is decided in their favor that the escrow fund would be paid out at once, the plea was made that the money could more readily be used at this time; that the high cost of living kept many from signing the agreement who would otherwise have done so.

The campaign to raise funds for the two institutions will be taken up at a later date under a different plan, so that it has not been abandoned, merely postponed until some future date. The trustees of the City Hospital at a meeting last evening passed the following resolution:

Resolved, That on account of lack of response by the public, the trustees decline the movement to raise a fund to pay the hospital debt be postponed until later, and that all subscriptions be surrendered and returned to the signers.

The City Hospital indebtedness is $17,500. That amount must be raised in the very near future and the mortgage on the buildings cancelled or else the institution will be forced to close. The public library is also badly in need of funds and it is to be sincerely hoped that when the new campaign is started friends of those two worthy institutions will assist in making it the success which it deserves.

WRECKED TRAIN PLOWS THROUGH HOTEL AT FOREST

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Upper Sandusky, O., Nov. 24.—By remarkable chance no one was seriously injured when the Steel City Express, a fast Chicago to Pittsburgh passenger train on the Pennsylvania railroad, plunged through a derail at Forest, near here, and ripped its way into the Forest hotel in a blinding snow storm early today.

The train, known as number 136, was running fast when the Big Four railroad crossing was reached and the engineer could not see that the block signal for the crossing was set against him, so severe was the storm which was raging.

The engine turned over on its side as it ploughed into the hotel which was badly damaged. The tender and mail car followed the engine. The seven coaches remained upon the track.

The only person hurt was the mail clerk, whose name has not been learned and he was only slightly injured.

VILLA

Renews Attack Upon Chihuahua Where He Failed to Succeed Yesterday

DENIES CITY EVACUATED

Bandit's Soldiers Enter City and Street Fighting is In Progress, El Paso Report Says—Attacking Force Suffered Heavy Loss—Carranza Loses 100 Men In Engagement

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
El Paso, Nov. 24.—Francisco Villa and his command renewed their attack on Chihuahua City at nine o'clock this morning, a message received in Juarez stated.

Andres Garci, inspector general of Carranza consulates today officially denied a report that General Trevino and his forces were at Terrazas Station north of Chihuahua City and had evacuated Chihuahua City.

"General Gonzales was talking with General Trevino over the military telegraph at ten o'clock and General Trevino was in the military headquarters in the state capital," Mr. Garcia said. "There is absolutely nothing to such a wild rumor," he added. "Neither is there any truth in the rumor that Carranza troops joined Villa."

It was reported here today that Villa had succeeded in entering Chihuahua City and that street fighting was in progress. The Juarez officials claim they have nothing from Chihuahua City regarding this report.

One general, two colonels and one hundred men of the Carranza forces were killed during the fighting yesterday between Carranza troops and Villa bandits, a report from Chihuahua says. Four hundred men of the Villa command are known to have been killed and left on the battlefield.

The fighting was for the possession of Government trenches it was announced of the first and second line of trenches and resulted in a victory for the de facto forces.

At Juarez General Gonzales said he had been in communication with Chihuahua City constantly since early morning and had had a brief conference regarding military affairs during the morning.

FIRE CHIEF SAVED BY PULMOTOR; SIX FACTORY GIRLS HURT

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Lima, O., Nov. 24.—The Lima Mattress Company's factory was practically destroyed by fire here today. Smoke and flames threw 25 girls employed in the plant into a panic and many jumped from windows and were trampled in trying to escape. Police say six girls were injured. The loss will be $50,000.

Assistant Fire Chief Clem Eyster was overcome by smoke and was believed dead. He was carried from the building and after heroic efforts was restored to consciousness with a pulmomotor. Fireman Bert Garrius was buried in wreckage when the second floor caved in and may die. Fireman Otto Shick was overcome by smoke but revived.

TRAIN SEVERS FIRE HOSE AND BIG PLANT BURNS; LOSS $100,000.

Canton, O., Nov. 24.—The plant of the Zahner Metal Sash and Door company was destroyed by fire early Friday morning. The loss is placed at $100,000 partly covered by insurance. Four hundred men are thrown out of employment.

The site of the plant is outside the city and the firemen were handicapped. After two lines of hose had been laid from the nearest water plug 1600 feet away, the lines were cut by a Pennsylvania train which ran past signal lights, firemen assert.

The fire started in a one-story frame warehouse just west of the main plant. The flames carried for several hundred yards by the strong wind, swept to the main two-story building which was of modern fireproof construction. The concrete and steel crumbled before the onslaught of the flames, however and nothing but a mass of wreckage remains.

The rebuilding of the plant will start at once, according to E. J. Zahner, and material was ordered for this while the fire was raging.

AN EVENT THAT COMES BUT ONCE IN EACH YEAR

High prices will take a tumble tomorrow and the two weeks following. It didn't take a miracle to accomplish this; it all came about in a natural sort of way. To be more explicit, the Pre-Christmas Sale, at the Davies Dry Goods store, begins tomorrow morning.

Ten thousand circulars, heralding this event, have been distributed in Newark and throughout the county, and judging from the unusually low prices quoted and knowing the assortments the Davies store carry and their reputation for quality, we are safe in saying that the store will be tilted to overflowing tomorrow, with hundreds of eager shoppers.

"Good values clothed in plain truth require no overstatement." That sentence struck us quite forcibly when reading the Pre-Christmas sale circular. It has a world of meaning to the people who follow the advertising of the Davies store. As Mr. Davies stated, "Exaggeration and inflated prices have no place in our store publicity. We simply state the true facts, regarding our article advertised, and quote the lowest possible price consistent with good store keeping. The majority of women look around before buying; they are keen judges of value, and quoting a high comparative price and then calling the normal. Every day selling price special is an insult to their intelligence and good judgment. Our customers know that truth is the foundation of this establishment, and when we do use the word special or sale price they know they can expect values entirely out of the ordinary."

An advertising policy such as outlined by Mr. Davies is bound to bring results. Morning shopping will be advisable, as record breaking crowds are anticipated.

FRENCH COMPOSERS VENTURE ON UNBEATEN PATHS IN NEW MUSIC

(By Jane Fulton Buell.)
The First Presbyterian church was filled with enthusiastic music lovers yesterday, when the second assembly of the Music club came together to hear an afternoon devoted to modern French music.

The program, in charge of Mrs. Clara Sinner White, of Granville, was prefaced by greetings to visitors and members and a short explanation of the club's intention and sale of tickets for the coming musical season was given by the president, Mrs. Harry D. Hays.

Mrs. White then began her paper on education, and explanation of modern French composers.

What the "Futurists" are doing in art the modern French are doing in music, as they term it. "The music of the future," and when a quick wit inquired "Why play it now," there was no answer. It is future music; music expressing passing fancies; music expressing action of persons and things, music which any good musician might compose, by sitting at the piano forte and announcing, "This expresses a tree growing by a river bank." Or, "this is a white deer running through the forest." It is refreshing, stimulating, exciting or just entertaining—as the listener applies it—to his own fancies—but it is difficult to play—it is so unorthodox in composition, that only those with finished technique may render it. Chief among the composers ranks Debussy, followed by Ravel, Huas, Charpentier, and Schmitt. The first numbers interpreted by Misses Hirschberger and Hagmeier, illustrated all the points Mrs. White had prepared the audience to follow. Their four-hand translation was skillfully done, and its difficulties of tempo and construction faded under the fingers of two skilled pianists. The audience was tremendously interested and eager for more. The second number with Mrs. White at the piano, gave three numbers to Miss Fleurschutz. Miss Fleurschutz possesses a fine violin of rare tone and she played delightfully the consensus of opinion was that her Chanson was the most charming number and first then I would say that the violin in the hands of a German by descent, who played a chanson by a man named Schmitt, seemed unexcelled and quite the music of the Fatherland. To me it was rarely lovely. Mrs. Whites perfect accompaniment inspired Miss Fleurschutz to great effort and achievement.

The club members lamented the absence of Mrs. Jerome Ferguson, who was down for four songs. Three by Frenchmen, one by George Hue, who used a German poem of Heine's for interpretation.

Mrs. Clarence Heisey too, was absent, and her two songs were greatly regretted. She was to have sung a song of Carpentier from the opera Lodoi.

The writer was present at the first performance of the opera, Louis Germain, in Germany, and although not quite ready for music of the future, found the orthodox, contented Germans very willing to understand and listen to the new school. Just here let me say that greatest geniuses are often labeled "mad" at the beginning, and only as the years pass, and the public reach their plane of comprehension are those "ahead of the times" accepted and appreciated. It is dangerous to be a pathfinder in any direction, and every pioneer suffers hardships.

The music then of the Future? How shall we of the present decipher it? The Future holds the key, and asks the code. We are willing and eager to listen—but the signs of the times, the "motor cars" and "movies" may all develop cars recording other tones and rapid transients permitting only "impression in colour." The great masters then might become as heavy to the next generation, as a cumbersome square plano is today. But we hope not. The signs of the times do not show an improvement in all departures. We cling fast to the things we know.

I wish it were given to me to have the honor of introducing to the public Miss Bessie Larkin. In coming years, I should like to say "I told you so," first.

Just back from two years at Cincinnati conservatory after faithful, loyal years under Mrs. White's tutelage, Miss Larkin returns the best pianoforte player I have heard for years.

Slight, spiritual, gifted beyond the common lot, with hands so clever and skillful, with technique so rare and true, she faithfully stands at the very top ready for concert tour and Newark should pay her homage. Her four numbers by Debussy, made the audience love Debussy as no one else could. We would be grateful always to Miss Larkin for helping us to understand the modern Frenchman whom German and radical critics despise and ignore.

She interpreted all the beauty he had involved. She set free all the fancies he had, and Mrs. White first naming the numbers the "Reflections in a Stream," the "Minstrel Time," "Shepherd Piping," and a "Garden in the Rain" permitted us to follow breathlessly. While Miss Larkin leads there will ever be musical comprehension, and Mrs. White for years has guided Miss Larkin's taste and confirmed it. We were in the presence of true and great artists. Loth as we are to admit it, we go to Granville for much that is best, and yesterday Mrs. White brought down ten ladies to sing for us, the cantata done by Debussy. "Blessed Damesel" known to the world of art and literature as Rosetti's greatest poem, done in honor of his dead wife. A tribute to every woman, and to lovers who are faithful. The solo parts were given by Mrs. Theodore Johnson and Miss Blanche Laferre. Both trained singers. The chorus was exquisitely done by eight ladies, who had taken time from the domestic side of life, to cultivate the artistic and beautiful. To them be given great credit—the finished work proved their efforts, and the greatest love poem remained a masterpiece, the better understood for their insight and rendition.

The afternoon will live as one of the pleasures of the year, and the forward step with Denison and Newark clasping hands, bespeaks future achievement which makes us glad in retrospect and enthusiastic for the whole music of the future.

OPPORTUNITY IS OPEN FOR STATE CONTROL OF BUREAU

The work of the employment bureau established by the Chamber of Commerce under the supervision of the Ohio Industrial Commission was commended and its possibilities outlined before the Membership Council last night by C. H. Mayhugh of Columbus, Assistant State Statistician.

A number of employers of labor were present and listened with interest to the remarks of Mr. Mayhugh and they were convinced that such a bureau properly managed is great value to an industrial community like Newark. The speaker told of how the state employment exchange was started several years ago and how branches have been placed in Cleveland, Toledo, Cincinnati, Columbus, Canton, Akron and Youngstown. He clearly explained the system whereby the man and the job are brought in contact thereby, cutting out a great waste and in times of industrial depression, relieving cities of the burden of supporting unemployed workmen and their families.

He said that Newark is the smallest city in the state which has started a branch bureau under state supervision and complimented the Chamber of Commerce on its enterprise and willingness to solve this perplexing question. He explained that except for financial assistance from the state, the bureau now in operation in the Newark chamber is doing the same work only on a smaller scale, that is being done by the branches in the larger cities. He dwelt on the good effects of the system which enables the proper handling of "floaters" who after being provided with several jobs and failed to make good will no longer be recommended to employers. He said that the first thing a branch must do is to build up confidence in its work so that employers will accept applicants for work sent to them.

He also told of the extreme care taken in handling applicants in case of strikes and lock outs and the strictly neutral position taken by the state system in such events.

Mr. Mayhugh told of the unprecedented demand for labor through all Ohio cities and said that Newark if anything, was not as hard pressed in this respect as many other cities, particularly those engaged in the manufacture of war munition, automobiles, steel and iron trade.

Mr. Mayhugh said that by starting this bureau and developing it under the chamber's auspices there is a splendid opportunity that it will be taken over by the state at the next meeting of the legislature when further appropriations for establishing branches will be made. If the state takes it over it will provide a superintendent whose salary shall be from $1500 to $1800 and the city of Newark will be asked to provide a clerk and office quarters.

W. E. Hopkins, director of the Public Welfare Bureau told how the employment agency in his department, the Y. M. C. A. and the Y. W. C. A. had merged into the bureau now being conducted by the chamber in order to save duplication of time and effort. He told of a recent visit to the state employment bureau at Youngstown, of the splendid work that it was doing and how the state could not get along without it. He believed similar results can be obtained for Newark through the local bureau.

The Gift of Gifts—a Columbia Grafonola

"The Instrument with the Tone of Life"

THE Columbia Grafonola is the "Gift Supreme"—a gift around which more dreams are woven, which brings more pleasure day after day, than any other gift you may give or receive—and no gift could bring a more lasting joy.

The tone of the Columbia Grafonola makes of music a living thing—not the semblance of life, but life itself.

Columbia tone gives a quality to every class of music recorded that calls out all the original fire of the actual, living rendering.

VISITING NURSE CHAPTER MAKES TIMELY APPEAL.

The visiting Nurse Chapter issues its annual appeal for Thanksgiving offerings to be used exclusively for the care of the sick. They will be grateful for the offering from union services of the churches which have been donated to their work in the past, and for gifts from other organizations and individuals.

The Chapter has been unable to care for some worthy cases during the past month owing to lack of funds. They should have at least $150.00 for the winter, besides supplies of clothing, food, etc. Remittances should be made to the treasurer, Miss Lillian Kammerer, 272 West Church street. Supplies may be sent to 14 Carroll and Schaus Buildings.

The Press announcement of the 21st inst by the Whits Cross Humane Society has caused many inquiries and we have been asked to explain that the Visiting Nurse Chapter is in no way connected with the above named society and has nothing to do with the tag day which they have advertised.

Signed, Finance Committee.

Hospital-Library Campaign.

The campaign instituted last Tuesday for the benefit of the Hospital and Library has been abandoned because of lack of support. Perhaps it would be better to say that the campaign has been postponed to a later date owing to the unpopularity of the plan of operation.

The Hospital was built at a cost of approximately $70,000, exclusive of the gift of grounds and building by Mr. and Mrs. Edward H. Everett, while the sum of $50,000 was raised through popular subscription. The trustees mortgaged the property for $20,000 and later were able to reduce the loan to $17,500. This debt, carrying an annual interest charge of $1,050, must be paid. The plan recently proposed was to invite natural gas consumers to donate one-half of their interest in the gas escrow fund and out of the amount thus raised, the hospital debt was to have been paid and the remaining sum divided equally between the Hospital and the Public Library.

Immediately many people assumed that all of the gas consumers would be bound by the action of the majority and felt that the campaign was an effort to secure their money against their will. Their conclusions were incorrect but that did not alter the situation. There were other objections to the canvass, some insisting that the time was inopportune, others that an unfair advantage was being taken in that nobody knows as yet just what he will receive as his share of the gas fund in case the court decides the matter in favor of the consumers. Many thought the plan was objectionable because it sought aid from those least able to contribute, yet the committee stated clearly that nobody was felt himself unable to give would be asked to assign his interest in the fund. The high cost of living was cited repeatedly as an objection to the campaign at the present time. Another objection grew out of previous efforts to divide the gas escrow fund. Many people felt that there was something unfair or mysterious about the present proposal and that they would be on the safe side by declining to make any agreement whatever at the present time.

The Hospital and Library trustees were actuated in this campaign only by the highest motives. The needs of both institutions are apparent. The Hospital debt must be paid, the institution is to continue its good work. The Library must be supported if its work is to continue and it is just as important to keep the public library open as it is to keep the school houses in operation.

After making a partial canvass the trustees were convinced that the required amount of money could not be secured at this time. It will be necessary for the trustees to borrow money to pay the interest on the hospital debt. The trustees are sincerely grateful to all who gave their time to this service and to all who generously supported the movement but their number was not sufficient to warrant further effort at present.

Christmas Seals.

The women of the Newark Federated clubs will again have charge of the Red Cross Christmas seals in this community. Seals have been sold on a statewide basis in Ohio for the support of the anti-tuberculosis work since 1911. The first year three and one-half million seals were sold. Last year 4,783,213 seals were sold. The money resulting from the sale of Christmas seals is used in the fight against the great white plague.

Limiting Right to Strike.

(Philadelphia Record.)

As between the employers and the employees, the right of the latter to strike has been fully established, in law, in practice, and in public sentiment. But the community as a whole has a right to protect itself against the waste of strikes, provided that it protects each party to a labor controversy from the other, and does equal and exact justice.

The "We" in Politics.

(Cleveland Plain Dealer.)

Whatever responsibility newspapers and newspaper publishers may or may not have for the result of the recent election in this state, newspaper publishers will have a good deal of responsibility for the manner in which government in Ohio is conducted during the next two years.

Passing by Senator Harding, who publishes the Star at Marion, Ohio, has as governor-elect Mr. Cox, who owns and publishes papers at Dayton and Springfield; Lieut. Gov.-elect Bloom, who publishes a paper in Wood county, and Treasurer-elect Bryan, who publishes a paper in Madison county. In addition, State Auditor Donahay is a former country newspaperman, and Attorney General-elect McGhee formerly owned a paper in Jackson.

Not often is a state government found to contain so many publishers. The Ohio editor, particularly the rural Ohio editor, has come into his own in politics.

by a lady on Van Ness avenue, and was taken to a hospital, but his injuries were not serious, so he was immediately removed to the police station, where his assailant was being held. And as soon as Jones got there the lady started in to impress him with the fact that blame for the accident was all his.

"You know, Mr. Jones," she said, "you must have been walking very carelessly. I am a very careful driver. I have been driving a car for seven years."

"You've got nothing on me, ma'am," said Jones politely; "I've been walking for thirty-four years."—Argonaut.

The Republican Future.

(Philadelphia Record.)

Has the Republican party any future? The question was raised by the paper founded by Horace Greeley, in a review of the campaign published four days after the election. We have already directed attention to the remarks of the Tribune on the character of the candidacy of Mr. Hughes, and the immoral purpose of the party managers to humbug the country by naming a candidate whose views were not on record, and who was willing to talk generalities, and could be trusted not to say anything definite on any subject except the entirely safe one of the tariff.

But the Tribune did not stop with the past. It took a glance at the future, and said a few words that might well set all the Republican voters to thinking.

So much for the past. Looking to the future, is it not possible even today to perceive that the fate that overtook the Whig party in 1853 now threatens the Republican party, which succeeded to its estate? The Whig party died of the effort to swallow the Fugitive Slave law; it died of the effort to face both ways on the great question of the hour; it perished because in the presence of a great national crisis it could only think of an election, it could only think of material prosperity, and it was prepared to invite the vote of the slaveholder in the South and the Free Soiler in the North by an avoidance of every question that did not concern the pockets and profits of the voter.

Last June the country faced a great national crisis. The President's attitude toward the belligerents on both sides had aroused a small, noisy and bitter opposition to him. The question before the country was whether it would stand by an administration that had maintained our neutrality, or whether it would repudiate the President because he did not subordinate the interests of the United States.

Under these circumstances the leaders of the Republican party selected for their candidate a man whose duties on the bench had restrained him from saying anything about the questions raised by the great war. Having nominated an unknown quantity, the managers entered into bargains with the German-American Alliance on the one hand, and Mr. Roosevelt on the other, to attack the President with all their might, but for diametrically opposite reasons. The candidate easily became the tool of this corrupt and unprincipled combination. While denouncing the President, which evoked applause from both sides, he avoided any statement of what the President ought to have done, or what he would do under similar circumstances, because he could make no statement that would not alienate one group of his supporters or the other. All the party was after was the election. All it offered to the country was "permanent prosperity." Democratic prosperity being of an ephemeral character.

As the Tribune says, the Republican party showed the same lack of moral quality that the Whig party did in 1852. It failed, as the Whig party failed in 1852. That failure was the end of the Whig party, is the present failure the end of the Republican party?

Death of Francis Joseph.

(Pittsburgh Gazette Times.)

Francis Joseph was the most reactionary monarch in Europe; at the same time he possessed a degree of enlightenment and common sense that enabled him to maintain a semblance of peace among his heterogeneous peoples and a sort of fealty to his rule that probably no other sovereign could have secured. Had he died when Europe was at peace there is not much doubt as to the eruption that would have taken place in his empire as soon as the grave closed over his clay. Death claiming him in the midst of the most frightful war of all time, a war which his demand for vengeance brought about, the dissolution of Austria-Hungary likely will be post-

Phosphorus and Corn.

The use of phosphorus is to be recommended more and more for corn. The recent season has taught some striking lessons of the value of this element whose important function is to hasten maturity. Maintaining Peace.

A league to maintain peace after the war may not be so chimerical a plan as it appears to some. Certainly it is the only way which promises any sort of a guarantee at all. No single nation can maintain peace and no great league of nations opposed by another league of about equal power and with shifting interests can. The "balance of power" method of maintaining peace has been weighed and found wanting.—Chicago Herald.

Voting for President.

In a discussion over the desirability of changing the method of voting for a President of the United States, so that the people might vote direct and not through electors, the important fact appears to be forgotten that to elect by popular vote would throw the entire machinery of election into the hands of the federal government, which could, and undoubtedly would, prescribe uniform qualifications for votes. In order to understand how this might be objectionable, in certain cases, let the reader imagine how the uniform qualification idea would work, for example, in the Southern or Pacific Coast states, which prefer, and, under existing constitutional prerogative, claim the right to, individual, exclusive control over the qualifications of citizenship, and over all elections.—Christian Science Monitor.

REGULATION

OF WAGES AND HOURS OF MUNICIPAL EMPLOYEES DISCUSSED AT MUNICIPAL CONVENTION

Committee Make Recommendation for Measures to Settle Disputes of City Employees as They Arise.

(Associated Press Telegram) Springfield, Mass., Nov. 24.—State municipal regulation of wages, hours and conditions of employment of public utility employees was discussed in a report presented today to the National Municipal League convention by Delos F. Wilcox, chairman of the Committee on Franchises who was for several years chief of the Bureau of Franchises of the New York State Public Service Commission for the first district.

The interest of the public in the continuity of operation of public utilities is sufficient, says the report, to warrant the employment of legal measures to prevent strikes, especially on street railway and telephone systems, but the committee recognizes that the right to strike cannot be taken away from such employees, until the public in some way guarantees that the employees' interests as to wages, hours of labor and conditions of work will be conserved.

Discussing the right of corporations to earn a fair return, the committee points out that in most cases public utility services are worth more than the consumers have to pay for them, and that the public might well afford to pay higher rates, if revenues at existing rates were insufficient to afford the employee a living wage and the corporation a living income.

The committee was in favor of inserting certain general clauses in franchise grants, not determining specific schedules of wages and hours but establishing a definite method for the settlement of labor disputes as they may arise.

The report continues: "The committee does not favor the principle of fixing wages and hours of labor in specific cases by legislative act without investigation. Legislation, like franchise contracts, should concern itself primarily with the establishment of general principles and the creation of means for the amicable settlement of specific disputes as they arise. The committee feels some doubt as to the particular character of the tribunal upon which should be conferred the authority to settle these disputes, but in view of the control already exercised by the public service commissions over rates, a matter that is vitally connected with the problem of wages, hours and conditions of labor, it reaches the conclusion that experimentally the far-reaching powers necessary to enforce the demands of the public for continuity of service by the prevention of strikes should be conferred upon these regulatory commissions." Besides Dr. Wilcox, the signers of the report are Prof. William M. Leiserson, head of the public service bureau of Toledo University; Robert Treat Paine, of Boston; Dr. Horatio M. Pollock, of Albany; Charles Richardson, of Philadelphia; and Clinton Rogers Woodruff, also of Philadelphia, who for more than 20 years has been secretary of the National Municipal League.

The tags are being furnished by the Abbot Stamping Co., of Detroit. The state contracted for a minimum of 250,000 sets. The cost to the state is 12.9 cents a set. The background of the tags is yellow and the figures are in black. The tags are the most conspicuous ever issued by the state. The figures also are larger than on any previous tags.

Pataskala Grange Sends Girl and Boy to Washington

Pataskala Grange has just finished a very interesting contest, which was financed by the business men of the town who responded very liberally. Thirteen girls were in the domestic science contest, every one making a very creditable showing, and were very highly complimented by Prof. Vivian of O. S. U., as being far above average. Miss Gableman, domestic science teacher in the Pataskala schools, deserves much credit for the success of the work. Her efforts and encouragement ever unceasing. Miss Fredricka Robinet received the highest grades and won the Washington trip.

The boys' corn contest was won by Lawrence Moreland. At the close of the contest, Prof. Vivian delivered a lecture, "A Trip Around the World," which was well received. The Grange is making extensive preparation to give the second degree at the State Grange meeting to be held in Newark December 12-15.

The members will meet in Newark Saturday of this week for inspection.

At the last regular meeting the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: H. E. Jones, Worthy Master; A. B. Cobel, Overseer; Miss Petra Gobleman, lecturer; Harry Condit, steward; Vernon Angevine, assistant steward; Mrs. A. W. Caldwell, chaplain; J. C. Morrow, treasurer; Leon Angevine, secretary; Curtis Bowlby, gate keeper; Bernice Green, Ceres; Burdell Peters, Pomona; Goldie Morrow, Flora; Hartzell Caldwell, lady assistant steward; A. W. Caldwell, legislative committee; George Albright, business agent. After the election refreshments were served by the ladies of the Grange. Regular meeting nights are the first and third Saturday of each month.

Inspectors Find Potatoes Measure Below Standard

Columbus, Nov. 24.—That the practice of selling potatoes short weight in peck measures is widespread in the state is the opinion of John M. Mote, deputy chief inspector of weights and measures, who is conducting a state-wide investigation of the subject and urging local sealers to watch market men and peddlers in particular.

"With potatoes selling at two dollars and upwards a bushel consumers are surely entitled to get full measure," said Mote, "but from investigations we have made we are convinced there has been much cheating going on. Instead of getting 15 pounds to the peck measure, by a system of 'stacking' potatoes in the tall peck measures, many customers get only 12 and 13 ounces to a peck."

In one city last week state inspectors made six purchases of peck measures of potatoes and in five of them they were given short weight. Samuel Lindsay, chief inspector of weights and measures has issued another warning against the sale of cranberries in the liquid quart measures instead of the dry measures. The dealer who measures cranberries or other small fruit in a liquid quart only gives 86 per cent of a quart to his customer and lays himself liable to a fine of from $10 to $50 for so doing.

"Dolly Dances" For Christmas

Here is a real children's Christmas record from Columbia, with "The Dolly Dances" on one side and "The Toy Parade" on the other side. "The Dolly Dances" is a delightful fairylike melody, as dainty as the Christmas dollies themselves.

"The Toy Parade" is a "regular boy's" style of antics; a vocal parade of cow bells, toy drum, cymbal, harmonica and sleigh bells. And a thoroughly started baby lends its comical wails to the parade. Mr. Price, leader of Prince's orchestra, which plays the selections, is the composer of this unique "Toy Parade."

MOTHER OF FOUR CHILDREN

How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Kept Her Well and Strong.

Lincoln, Illinois.—"I have used Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for ten years with good results and I have four healthy children. This summer I was in a very run down condition and the very hot weather seemed more than I could stand, but I commenced taking your Compound in June and from then until September 25th, when my last baby was born, I got along much better than I had before. My baby was a girl and weighed 14 pounds at birth, and I recovered very rapidly which I am sure was due to your medicine. I am well and strong now, nurse my baby and do all my work. I had the same good results with your medicine when needed before my other children came and they are all healthy. My mother has taken your medicine with equal satisfaction. She had her last child when nearly 44 years old. I feel confident she never would have carried him through without your help, as her health was very poor."—Mrs. T. F. CLOYD, 1355 North Gulick Ave., Decatur, Ill.

Expectant mothers should profit by Mrs. Cloyd's experience, and trust to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Free confidential advice had by addressing Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass.

FAT FOLKS WHO WOULD BE THIN

REDUCE WEIGHT 10 POUNDS OR MORE.

"I'd certainly give most anything to be able to reduce a few pounds and stay that way," declares every excessively fat man or woman. Such a result is not impossible despite past failures. Most fat people are the victims of super-nutrition, a condition which prevents the fatty elements of food from being consumed by the blood. Instead of only nourishing the blood, much of the fat producing elements are deposited in different parts of the body where they don't belong.

To correct this condition and to produce a healthy normal distribution of the nutritive processes must be artificially supplied with the fat-burning power which nature has denied them. This can probably be best accomplished by taking an Oil of Kora capsule with every meal. Kora is a careful combination of splendid fat-reducing elements, and its rapid effect has been in many cases reported remarkable. Reported reductions of from 10 to 25 pounds in a single month are by no means infrequent. Yet this action is perfectly natural and harmless. Oil of Kora is sold by W. A. Erman, Evans' Drug Store, and other good druggists in the original sealed laboratory packages.

DANGER IN COLDS

Swollen tonsils and inflamed membranes often affect other tissues and lung trouble easily follows. Kill the cold germs and protect your lungs.

As soon as your nose feels stopped up or your throat is dry and raw—you know that the germs are getting you.

Kill them before they get too deeply into your system. Wash your mouth, gargle, spray your nose with water into which you have put five to ten drops of Hyclorite. Gargle away a glassful several times each day.

Five to ten drops of Hyclorite are enough, but more won't hurt you. Hyclorite is harmless and benefits you yet kills germs quickly. It is many times more effective than peroxide.

Hyclorite cleans the tissues, giving you immediate relief as well as killing the germs.

Hyclorite is a sodium hypochlorite solution. A U. S. Government report has been published showing that 130 antiseptics were recently tested in military hospitals of Europe and sodium hypochlorite is declared by the surgeons to be the most economical and efficient of them all.

Although many times more powerful than the harmful antiseptics which contain poisons, acids, mercury or dangerous preservatives, Hyclorite is even safer than the weak and ineffective peroxides. It is clean, clear and harmless as water—but powerful. Any druggist can supply Hyclorite in 25 and 50 ct. bottles. General Laboratories, Madison, Wisconsin.

WHITE HOUSE CHINA PLACED IN CABINETS; DISPLAY COMPLETE

Washington, Nov. 24.—The famous White House celebration of China, containing specimens from the table service of all the presidents except two, has been placed in a room especially prepared for it under the supervision of Mrs. Wilson in the executive mansion. It is Mrs. Wilson's intention to increase the collection, if possible and the specimens have been so placed in cabinets as to leave room for expansion. The new room was prepared while the President and his family were at Shadow Lawn for the summer.

Before leaving for Shadow Lawn Mrs. Wilson went over plans for the change with Mrs. Abby Gunn Baker, in charge of the collection, and instructed her to select some of the pieces of old china, glass and plate, which were stored in White House closets, and place them in the new cabinet.

While the collection, which Mrs. Baker has been building up for several years, includes pieces from every president except two, some administrations are represented inadequately, and she is continuing her work in the hope of making it really representative.

Eventually the walls of the room are to be lined with cabinets for the collection, but at present only the first line has been put in. It extends the entire length of the room and is in harmony with the architecture of the White House interior modeled after the Georgian period. The woodwork is of ivory white. The shelves are lined with handsome velvet, which gives a perfect background for the China as well as for the silver and glass. The furniture of the room is a part of the set, used in the East room during the administration of President McKinley, and is upholstered in brocade satin of a light yellow tint.

Mrs. Baker made a search of the historic ware already in the White House, and placed in the central section of the new cabinet some of the oldest pieces of silver and glass in the mansion. The Washington and John Adams relics are also displayed from the center to the right. On the left of the cabinet the relics are arranged in chronological order, of presidential administrations. Mrs. Baker is in correspondence with a number of the presidential descendants who are contemplating gifts to the collection.

GREATER RUMANIA SIGNS ARE CHANGED TO POOR RUMANIA.

[Associated Press Correspondence] Fogaras, Transylvania, Oct. 24.—The legend "Rumania Mare" and paper ribbons in the Rumanian national colors, blue, yellow and red, are the only signs left in this region today which speak of occupancy by the First and Second Rumanian armies, though many a wrecked or burned house gives evidence of the recent passing of some hostile force. "Rumania Mare" Greater Rumania—has been painted above the doors of nearly all houses in which some Rumanian official had his headquarters. Those who caused them to be placed are gone, and the Central Powers' troops, by transposing the letter "m" have changed the legend to "Arme Rumania"—Poor Rumania. The paper ribbons still hang in the autumn-leaved trees.

LIVERYMAN IS FREED OF MURDER CHARGE BY JURY.

Georgetown, O., Nov. 24.—Leonard Sanders Mt. Orab liveryman, was acquitted last night by a jury of prominent farmers. The jury was out two hours and 15 minutes.

When the verdict was read in court Sanders broke down and cried. Later he composed himself and thanked the jurors and was then driven home.

Mrs. Wahl on the witness stand had admitted her love for Sanders and told of the various meetings and trips with him. Other witnesses also testified as to the prosecution charged that Sanders shot Wahl from ambush as he was entering his yard in his automobile.

UNNATURALLY TIRED

Some men and many women feel tired all the time. This is not natural. Fatigue following work or great exertion is normal but to be constantly tired indicates a diseased condition, usually thin blood. Backache generally accompanies this state of the system. Such sufferers are usually pale but not necessarily thin. In blood the transparency of the skin is increased; in brunettes it is decreased and the complexion becomes muddy. The eyelids become a greyish blue.

This condition of thin blood, which doctors call anemia, is a dangerous one if allowed to progress but with proper treatment it may be speedily corrected. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People contain just the elements needed to build up the blood and restore the lost color and vitality. New energy circulates through the system with the enriched blood, the heart stops its alarming palpitating, color returns to cheeks and lips.

Nothing more is needed except sunlight, good air, proper food and rest. If you do not know exactly what rules to follow in these matters write today to the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y., for booklets on the blood and diet. Your own druggist sells Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

PLANE DROPS 4,000 FEET BEFORE PILOT CONTROLLED MACHINE.

[Associated Press Correspondence] Field Headquarters American Punitive Expedition in Mexico, Nov. 24.—"Get there and back," is the motto of the punitive expedition's aero squadron. Censorship restrictions have placed an almost impenetrable hedge about the army aviators, but it may be said the squadron has lived up to its motto.

Flights are not begun at sea level, where the propeller blades can grip the air, but at a height of 5,200 to 7,000 feet, where the atmosphere is thin. The mountains, canyons and sun-baked plains plus the altitude combine to produce air currents and pockets that are a constant source of peril.

In one case a pilot went through that nightmare of all aviators, a spiral nose dive. The machine was flying at an altitude of 5,000 feet, which is more than 10,000 above sea level, when it struck an air pocket. Clouds obscured the pilot's vision and he had no idea where he was. When he realized that manipulation of his controls produced no effect, he glanced at his compass. It was turned sideways, indicating that his plane was falling with its wings at right angles to the earth. Carefully he reversed his controls, fearing that too quick a reverse would crumple the planes. Several times he did that. At last he felt them take hold.

Just then, the clouds thinned and he saw the earth not more than 500 feet beneath him. He had fallen like a plummet at least 4,000 feet.

Another pilot at an altitude of several thousand feet early one morning noticed a sheet of flame shoot from the hood of his machine. Startled, he began to volplane down, seeking a place to land. He throttled down the motor and the flame receded. When he gave the engine gas a few moments later to regain momentum, the flame reappeared. Several times this occurred. Finally, he slid to earth and got out to inspect the aeroplane. Everything seemed in good shape. There were no signs of fire. The flame he had seen had been the rays of the early morning sun gleaming on the highly polished, red blades of his propeller.

A FINE TREATMENT FOR CATARRH

Easy to Make and Costs Little.

Catarrh is such an insidious disease and has become so prevalent during the past few years that its treatment should be understood by all.

Science has fully proved that Catarrh is a constitutional disease and therefore requires a constitutional treatment. Sprays, inhalers, salves and nose douches seldom if ever give lasting benefit and often drive the disease further down the air passages and into the lungs.

If you have Catarrh or Catarrhal deafness or head-noises, go to your druggist and get one ounce of Parment (Double Strength). Take this home and add to it 1-4 pint of hot water and 4 ounces of granulated sugar; stir until dissolved, take one tablespoonful 4 times a day.

This will often bring quick relief from the distressing head-noises, clogged nostrils should open, breathing become easy and mucus stop dropping into the throat.

This treatment has a slight tonic action which makes it especially effective in cases where the blood has become thin and weak. It is easy to make, tastes pleasant and costs little. Every person who wishes to be free from this destructive disease should give this treatment a trial.—Advertisement.

NEW EMPEROR

HAS BEEN ACTIVELY ENGAGED IN PRESENT WAR AS COMMANDER OF CORPS.

Had Charge of Offensive Against Italians and Later in Galicia Against Slavs.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Vienna, via London, Nov. 24.—Charles I. of Austria, the new ruler of the dual empire, was born on August 17, 1887, at the imperial chateau of Persenbourg, overlooking the Danube valley. His childhood training was entrusted to the Archduchess Marie Theres and the Archduchess Marie Josefa, assisted by an English governess. He is credited with having shown a considerable precocity in learning to read and write and to have developed a special ability in acquiring languages. When he was 17 years of age the young prince joined the first regiment of Uhlan as lieutenant and was later transferred to the seventh regiment of dragoons. His military education was interrupted in 1911 when he commenced the study of law at the University of Prague. He was graduated the following year and returned to his regiment, being promoted to captain on Nov. 1, 1910. Three weeks later he was married to Princess Zita, of Parma, a member of the Italian Bourbons. He remained with the army and in 1912 was promoted to major and two years later reached the rank of lieutenant colonel.

The assassination of his uncle, Archduke Francis Ferdinand at Sarajevo on June 28, 1914, made him the heir to the throne and on July 25 of the same year he was appointed colonel of the first Hussar regiment.

The opening months of the war were spent by the heir apparent at the headquarters of the Austrian commander-in-chief, Archduke Frederick. In January 1915, he went to the headquarters of the German emperor on a special mission and in July of this year was promoted to major general and rear admiral. Subsequently he spent considerable time in spreading the troops on the various fronts by command of the Emperor Francis Joseph and in March, 1916, was created field marshal and vice admiral, receiving at the same time the command of an army corps on the Italian front.

The emperor took part personally in the great offensive against the Italians in May of the present year and his services were rewarded by the German emperor by the iron cross of the first class and the order of pour l'empire. In July of the present year he was transferred to the command of an army in east Galicia, consisting of a composite force of Austro-Hungarians, Germans and Turks. Last October the new emperor took charge of Austria's armies against Rumania.

Emperor Charles is reported to be a great favorite with the soldiers, to like to talk familiarly with the men in the trenches. He is tall and slender in build with a very round, ruddy face and a hearty laugh. He is credited with being a man of modern views and highly progressive tendencies and it is believed that under his administration the Austro-Hungarian governmental system will undergo many changes.

ATTORNEYS AGREE ON PLAN FOR HEARING ADAMSON LAW SUITS.

Washington, Nov. 24.—Attorney General Gregory and counsel for the railroads yesterday agreed upon a plan of procedure in connection with the test case on the Adamson law to be pushed through the supreme court. Government attorneys and railroad lawyers in Kansas City will determine whether the Missouri, Oklahoma & Gulf case, already decided by Judge Hook there, or the Santa Fe Case, to be heard tomorrow in Kansas City, shall be made the test case.

Today's plan, provided that both the department and railroads agree in every way to expedite and actively press the case to be determined upon to a final decision in the supreme court, and that during the pendency of this suit the government will not begin any prosecutions of any carriers for failure to apply the law and the carriers will institute no more suits, and at its determination both parties to the agreement will be bound by the supreme court decision; the carriers agreeing not to bring further actions if the law is found constitutional and to drop all others.

25 Years Ago

(From Advocate, Nov. 24, 1891.)
The Schubert Emerson Quartette company's entertainment at the Music Hall last night was one of the delightful entertainments of the season.

Hon. James W. Owens, our faithful representative in Congress, left on Sunday for Washington, D. C. He will return to Newark for the holidays.

At the last regular meeting of the First Presbyterian church literary society the following officers were chosen: W. H. Mazey, president; Miss Cora Henry, vice president, and G. C. Daugherty, secretary.

Fire Chief Schlegel received a telegram from Cambridge Saturday evening, stating that a terrible fire was raging in that town and asking for a steam engine. Several other messages were received concerning the matter, when word came that the fire was under control and the engine was not needed.

The dog was later killed by some neighbors.

VILLA FAILS AT CHIHUAHUA; HIS FORCES WITHDRAW.

El Paso, Nov. 24.—Francisco Villa withdrew his surviving forces in defeat from Chihuahua City at 6:15 o'clock last night, after a battle of seven hours, during which he made fruitless attempts to carry General Trevino's protecting works by assault, according to reports from Mexico.

General Trevino, commanding the Carranza forces, was wounded during the fighting in the early afternoon, while personally directing the fighting from the vicinity of Santa Rosa Hill. General Francisco Gonzales announced in Juarez last night after receiving a message from Chihuahua City.

General Trevino returned to the city to have a scalp wound on the right side of his head dressed at the military hospital. With a bandage around his head he returned to his post at the field headquarters and continued the direction of the Carranza forces on the firing line.

MONSTER THROG IN NEW YORK CITY FOR ARMY-NAVY BATTLE.

(Associated Press Telegram)
New York, Nov. 24.—A formidable fleet of American warships is in port today to permit its officers to attend the army and navy football game here tomorrow. The fleet includes one dreadnaught, seven battleships, five cruisers, a torpedo boat and two colliers. It is expected that between 10,000 and 12,000 men will be granted shore liberty.

Hundreds of active and retired officers of the army and navy thronged the hotels today and with the congestion caused by an abnormal number of civilian visitors nearly every leading hotel in the city was reported filled to capacity.

OHIO 'CON' PAL OF LONDON SENDS HIS SYMPATHY TO WIFE.

Columbus, Nov. 24.—Jerry Hogan, convict, assistant editor of the Ohio Penitentiary News, stopped writing an editorial yesterday when he read of the death of Jack London. Instead he wrote this letter to Mrs. London:

"You don't know me and it's better you don't. But I used to know Jack. It's better for him that I passed out of his life. I used to be his pal. Here's just a note of sympathy to you for the great, big man the world has lost.

"I hope you'll pardon this. My name doesn't count, but my number is, '42626, Ohio Penitentiary.'"

Jerry was London's "pal" through a year of tramping ties and hobnobbing in the south just after Jack left college 22 years ago. He hadn't seen Jack since, but his friendship for his old pal had not died.

STREET CAR SERVICE STOPS WHEN COAL SUPPLY IS EXHAUSTED.

(Associated Press Telegram)
Natchez, Miss., Nov. 24.—Scarcity of coal is responsible for the shutting down today of street car service here, according to officials of the local power company. The supply of coal on hand and available in the future, it is said, will be needed for production of light and other purposes than the operation of street cars.

AUDITORIUM.
"Shameen Dhu Tonight."
Clifford Hipple and his company will offer for our delectation at the Auditorium tonight a typical threeact Irish play of the better kind, Shameen Dhu. It is a romantic love story told in the atmosphere and times of Colonial days. Clean, bright and wholesome in its theme,
it has to deal with complicated love affairs devoid of mawkish sentiment or suggestive surroundings. It is a play of human appeal dealing with the honest attraction of the sexes.
Shameen Dhu is one of the best efforts of that very clever dramatist, Rida Johnson Young, and it has stood the test of repeated presentation throughout the country, for Chauncey Olcott played "Dare O'Donnell," all over the land. This season he has been succeeded by Clifford Hipple, in voice and manner well fitted to assume the role of "Dare" well known in Ireland as the poet patriot. Seats are going nicely and a good house is looked for.

Local Movie Play.
Manager Fenberg will offer his picture patrons tomorrow a double feature program, the extra big feature being the "Movie" taken here a few days ago called "Twass Schooldays." In this photoplay will be seen local artists and the most prominent are Helen Garrity, Walter Rauch, Mrs. Moore, Blanche Trost, Frank Strayer, LeRoy Messer,
Ralph Lipscombe, A. C. Willert,
Helen Caldwell, Gladys Kettering,
Zelma Hiesley, Dr. D. W. Winters,
A. J. Harrison, etc.

The feature alone should pack this theatre, but Mr. Fenberg believes in giving your money's worth

HARRY (HICKEY) LE VAN
With "Big Revue of 1917," at the Auditorium, Monday.

and offers also the William Fox feature 5-reel wonder photoplay, "The Mediator" with George Walsh and Juanita Hansen and a select company of stars.

"Being a mediator is strenuous work," said George Walsh, after his new picture for William Fox, "The Mediator", was completed. "I'm glad it's over with. I couldn't stand being the character in real life that I am in this picture. The life of the ruffian for me every time, in preference to the joys of such a pacifist."

Theda Bara.
Theda Bara, the noted Fox screen artist is to be brought to the Auditorium by popular demand, the public have asked Manager Fenberg to bring back "Under Two Flags," the six-part feature that was seen here some time ago.

"Under Two Flags" was one of the big hits of the season and should prove a big drawing card for the Auditorium on next Sunday. This will be seen together with Pathe Weekly, full of interesting news event, also a comedy cartoon that is sure to please all who see it.

"Revue of 1917."
It has seemingly remained for Henry P. Dixon to offer something new in the annals of modernized burlesque. This active manager, whose organization, bearing the title of Henry P. Dixon's (Inc.) Big Revue of 1917, and which is to be the next Wheel attraction at the Auditorium, next Monday afternoon and evening with the customary matinee is offering the season what promises to be a real innovation in this style of entertainment. Instead of trav-estyng as in former years stage celebrities, this popular company will provide for approval adroit impersonations of moving picture stars, including Charlie Chaplin, Mary Pickford, Theda Bara, "Ambrose," Clara Kimball Young, Blanche Sweet "Fatty" Arbuckle, Babe Normand, Ford Sterling, "Steve" and other screen favorites.

Seats are now on sale for this attraction and Manager Fenberg is out to break previous records.

"Peg O' My Heart."
"Peg O' My Heart," Oliver Mor-osco's production of J. Hartley Manner's comedy, which will be the attraction at the Auditorium on Thanksgiving day is one of the very few dramatic offerings nowadays that can boast of a two years' continuous run in New York. The author had a hard time to convince producing managers that it was a good play, and it was left for Mr.
Morosco to prove that he had the courage of his convictions, that a play can be free of moral lessons and discussions of either capital and labor or sexual sins, and still be a good play, and it proved that this play can be free of moral lessons and which audiences everywhere had long been waiting. It is brimful of clever wit and humor, and comic situations and it is not without an abundance of heart interest.

Mail orders are now being received.

ALHAMBRA.
For the first time in four months,
Blanche Sweet, the beautiful Lasky star, who will be seen at the Alhambra, tonight and tomorrow in "Unprotected," a Paramount Picture written especially for her, has been given a vacation longer than a few minutes. At the completion of the production, Miss Sweet was informed that she could return to Bear Valley and fish to her heart's content for a period of two weeks. Altho Miss Sweet has developed into a famous Izaak Walton only within the last two months, she now has more fishing equipment than the average sporting goods store. Many of her admirers, hearing that she had developed a taste for the angler's art, have sent her everything from bait to fishing poles.

His mother was a woman of dreamy, poetical nature, married to a woodsman of tremendous strength and bravery. As a result the son is a combination of the two, and proves a most interesting character in the role of the guide in "The Strength of Donald McKenzie," starring William Russell, the American-Mutual idol.
This Mutual Star Production is the headline at the Alhambra theatre on Sunday.

Dragging Around,

You'll Feel a Remarkable Difference in 30 Minutes, After Taking a Wineglassful of Tollo Water.

Feeling tired and nervous, tongue covered with a furry coat, skin sallow, constipated. Your food feels heavy as lead. It all comes from your livers. Too much rich food has choked the bile tubes; you become constipated and bile is being absorbed into the system.

Tollo Water from Dawson Springs, Kentucky, will give quick relief. Get a 15-cent bottle from the drug store —pour about a third of a tumbler-ful in a glass of plain water and drink it before breakfast. In a few minutes it will flush—really wash out—the bile and waste from the system and start you feeling fine.
Then you can eat all you want without feeling stuffed or bloated. You will know again the pleasure of an active, energetic life.—Advertisement.

Bowser Defeats Conley in Two Straight Falls; Reed Proves a Quitter

Ed Conley, of Cleveland, the globe-trotting grappler who recently returned from the Panama Canal zone, met Paul Bowser, world's middleweight wrestling champion, at the Auditorium last night, and while the sixth city man proved to be one of the toughest men the champ has met here, yet he was not hefty enough to withstand the pace set by the local prize.

The first fall went to Bowser after 66 minutes wrestling. It was a hard fought battle all the way, with men using all their energy to gain the decision. The second fall was won by Bowser in 16 1/2 minutes, because of Conley wearing under the terrible strain of trying to stave off the first fall.

For the first time in many bouts the falls were not won by the aid of the toe hold, although his favorite means of gaining decisions for Bowser was very much in evidence. The first fall looked as though it would be decided by the famous hold, but Conley put up such a struggle that Paul finally switched to an upper cut, which brought a double wrist lock, which brought home the bacon.

Bowser pulled the same stunt in the second fall. After apparently having his man at his mercy by the toe hold, again switched and pinned Conley's shoulders by a hold similar to that which he decided the first fall.

"I have no excuse for losing," Conley said after the match in a speech featured by its brevity. "I fought fair and square by a better man than myself. That is why I lost."

Conley's work was similar to that of Burns who met Bowser last winter. He was not the flashy sort of grappler that kept the fans in an uproar, but he was trying every minute and resorting to every trick of the game to meet any grappler the fans care to bring here. He is deserving of as much consideration as any other citizen.

The great trouble has been since Bowser defeated Turner here, is that the skeptics refuse to believe that Newark possesses a champion because it is not a Metropolis. But with the exception of a few cases very few cities ever housed or could claim credit for a championship in any line of sport. Why Newark should not excel in any line of sport is an unanswerable question, because it possesses a colony of good blooded citizens who enjoy good clean sport and are willing to crack down their iron men for the pleasure of witnessing the same.

The knoekers have just about exhausted their supply of knives which they had been trying for months to bury in Bowser's back, and the time is not far off, when the man who believes that black is black, will not allow his opinion to be swayed by a bunch of hammer wielders.

In the curtain raiser to last night's bout, Lester Fishbaugh and Sylvester Winters went 10 minutes to a draw.

M'DANIELS TEAM WILL BE STRONG IN SUNDAY GAME

Local Manager Has Chance to Sign Five College Players for Remainder of Season.

Manager McDaniel, of the local football team, yesterday received a letter from a Newark boy, who is attending college in an Ohio city, offering the services of five star footballers for the remainder of the season. The men are well known in college football circles in the state, and would greatly increase the McDaniel team.

If the men are engaged, their first game will probably be played next Sunday, when the all-star Pan Handles team of Dennison comes to Newark for a fuss with the "Macs". This game will no doubt be one of the hardest in which the locals have figured this season, and the acquisition of the college men to the local aggregation ought to turn the tide of victory, Newarkway.

With Hughes and Thull and Bliss in the McDaniel's backfield and lineup the same as last Sunday at Zanesville the visitors from downstate will find that they are meeting one of the best pro teams in Ohio. Considerable practice has been on the bill this week for the locals and the team should line up in tip top shape.

Word from Dennison states that the Pan Handles are working hard in practice formulating new plays, and are more than anxious to cop Sunday's contest. The manager of the visit vs states that a large crowd of Dennison fans will accompany the team and pull for a win.

If manager McDaniel decides to secure the services of the college players for the remainder of the season, Newark fans will see football similar to that being played at Canton, Cleveland and other large Ohio cities, where the gridiron sport is drawing big attendances. In the five mentioned men, there is one that bears a state wide reputation, the mention of whose name would be sufficient guarantee for the fans.

The game will be played at Whelan and will be called promptly at 2:30 o'clock.

CHAMPIONSHIP OF "BIG NINE" RESTS ON RESULT

Chicago, Nov. 24.—Football in the Western Conference will close for 1916 tomorrow with the championship battle between Northwestern and Ohio State at Columbus, topping off the schedule. Only a tie score can prevent the season's gridiron honors of the "Big Nine" from being decided, as both teams have gone through the season undefeated.

Minnesota will black out Chicago, and Illinois will oppose Wisconsin in the remaining "big" games of tomorrow's schedule. These games, however, the deciding factors of the conference championship, are exciting almost as much interest as the title affair between Northwestern and Ohio State.

Northwestern will send a remarkably game and tricky eleven into the championship fray against Ohio State. The team's coaches have frankly admitted that they have kept their trump cards under cover thus far, displaying only just enough football to win.

Every member of the squad is declared to be in perfect condition, Capt. "Paddy" Driscoll, whose field goals have swelled Northwestern's totals, has fully recovered from injuries as has Cigrand, a dashing half, whose ribs were cracked a month ago.

Confidence also is supreme in the Ohio camp. Coach Wilce figures that "Chick" Harley, a 21 year old Chicagoan whose kicking and running have made him the star of the Chicago team, will be the offset the playing of Driscoll.

The Ohio eleven is well balanced. The backfield men are consistent ground gainers, and the line is reported to be among the strongest of the conference elevens.

Mother Praises Remedy That Relieved Her Baby

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is a Dependable Family Laxative.

Nearly all the sickness incident to a baby's life is due to constipation, or inaction of the bowels. At the first indication of irregularity in this important function, relief should be afforded promptly. A mild laxative should be administered to gently carry off the congested waste and leave the stomach and bowels free to perform their allotted tasks.

Of the various remedies recommended to relieve constipation, the combination of simple laxative herbs with pepsin, as prescribed by Dr. W. B. Caldwell and sold in drug stores under the name of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, is the most effective. It contains no opiate or narcotic drug, is pleasant to the taste, mild and gentle in action, and quickly brings relief in an easy, natural manner.

Mrs. C. J. Douglas, Mason, Ill., writes that she cannot say enough in praise of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin as a dependable family laxative. Little Mary Eva had been badly constipated until they tried Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, which brought the first natural relief the child had had in two weeks.

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is sold in drug stores everywhere and costs only fifty cents a bottle. To avoid imitations and ineffective substitutes be sure to ask for Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. See that a facsimile of Dr. Caldwell's signature and his portrait appear on the yellow carton in which the bottle is packed. A trial bottle, free of charge, can be obtained by writing to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 455 Washington St., Monticello, Illinois.

good quality has no rival, but where there are so many of the lovely little round French cakes to lure one it is indeed a trying temptation. How many women enjoy the luxury of a perfumed sponge bath? It is easily managed and will never be forgotten when once tried. After the ordinary warm bath, moisten a wash cloth in fairly hot water and partially wring out. Then sprinkle with a goodly amount of your favorite toilet water, and rapidly draw it over the body. The result is lasting.

Cosmetics Not Needed; Peel the Skin Instead

One reason mercerized wax is so strongly recommended is that it really takes the place of several different cosmetics, saving time, patience and expense. It is better than any cleansing cream, better than any massage cream, and better than any rouge, for accomplishing the results for which such articles are used. As the wax actually absorbs an old, faded or discolored cuticle, a little each day, the underlying skin which gradually appears, is clearer, softer, healthier and more youthful than any cosmetic-made complexion. Spreading on a thin coat of this wax at night, washing it off in the morning, in a week or so produces a marvelous transformation. Just one ounce of mercerized wax, obtainable at any drug store, will do the work there's nothing better to remove freckles, blotches, liver spots, sallowness, moths, pimples or blackheads.

For wrinkles and loose, saggy skin, a face bath made by dissolving one ounce of powdered salicylic acid in a half pint of which is the best thing that can be recommended. This has remarkable astringent and tonic properties.

Muggins—"What makes you think he's a foreigner? He has no accent." Buggins—"No, but he knows so many ways in which this country could be improved."

Society

The regular meeting of the City Federation of Women's Clubs was held on Thursday afternoon in the Y. M. C. A. and a number of interesting plans were discussed. The matter of the sale of Red Cross seals which has been conducted, just preceding the holidays each year in Newark, was again taken up, and while some of the members seemed reluctant to assume the responsibility for the sale this year it was finally decided that the Federation through the various clubs would endeavor to sell the seals for the 1916 season. Last year $243.41 was turned over to the state treasury, the funds so collected being used in the fight against tuberculosis in Ohio.

The members were most enthusiastic in their plans for the annual Fellowship Dinner which will be given early in December. It has always been planned not to make the dinner a federation or club event, but to make it appeal to all the women of the city and especially those interested in civic betterment. The aim this year is to have a banquet of 200 plates.

The art committee has announced an art exhibit which will be held in the directors' room of the Home Building Association on December 7, 8, 9. This year a showing of the reproduction of the works of Ohio artists from Ohio galleries will be made.

The resignation of the Mrs. E. V. Bowers, as recording secretary of the Federation necessitated the election of a new secretary and Mrs. Charles C. McGruder was named to the office. Mrs. Bowers has moved to Marietta to make her home.

On Thursday afternoon Miss Rhea Ingler was honor guest when Mrs. R. A. Hutchinson and Miss Hannah Sullivan entertained the members of the Monday Evening Bridge club and a number of guests at the home of Mrs. Hutchinson in Hudson avenue.

Tables were arranged for bridge and the club prize was received by Miss Ruth Lindorf. The bride's gift was bestowed on Miss Rhea Ingler. Luncheon was served the club members and the following guests: Mrs. Wayne Anderson, Mrs. Carl Swisher, Mrs. Wells of Nashport, Mrs. Otto Ralle of Zanesville, Mrs. B. F. McDonald, Miss Mabel Smucker, Miss Leontine Moore, Miss Mary Brumhall of Zanesville, and Miss Ruth Bolin of Zanesville.

The members of the B. G. club pleasantly surprised one of its members, Miss Lettie Hankinson at her home in Central avenue Tuesday evening in honor of her 20th birthday anniversary. The evening was spent in dancing, music and games, after which luncheon was served the following guests and members: Misses Lucille Elliot, Ethel Instcho, Mildred Preston, Violet Coss, Wilma Armstrong, Marie Bourner, Vestal Wilson, Clara Blaney, Osa Clark, Hazel Niebel and Ruth Risher, and Messrs. Hugh Sullivan, Harold Allison, Hugh Conn, Anthony Roll, Charles Griseley, Lee Risher, Harry Rosbraugh, Paul La Fever, Harold Steinman, Al Weatherall, Walter Riechart, Harold Bishop of Johnston, Dillon Duplap and the hostess, Miss Lettie Hankinson.

Mrs. George Roley entertained a few friends with two tables of bridge at her home in West Locust street on Friday afternoon, honoring Mrs. Chester Zinsmeister of Zanesville. The souvenirs for the game were awarded to Mrs. George Vail and Mrs. Checon Zinsmeister. A delicious luncheon was served the following guests: Mrs. Chester Zinsmeister, Mrs. George Vail, Mrs. G. E. Besanceney, Mrs. William Wehrle, Mrs. Walter Daugherty, Mrs. David Thompson, Mrs. Harry Doage and Mrs. Ralph Davis.

Hetuck Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, is entertaining as its guest this afternoon, Mrs. Austin C. Brant, state regent of Canton, and Mrs. Herbert Backus, member of the state regent's council of Columbus.

This afternoon a reception is being tendered the guests at the home of Mrs. F. M. B. Winkle in North Fourth street by the members of Hetuck chapter and the members of the Granville chapter have been invited as guests. Mrs. Brant will speak this afternoon on "Why I am a D. A. R."

Every Day Etiquette

"Which is the correct way to eat soup or other liquid food, from the end or side of the spoon?" asked Jane.

"Soup should be sipped quietly from the side of the spoon," answered her mother.

The wrist watch alarm which awakens the wearer by pricking them on the wrist, gives rise to the question, "Why should anybody sleep in a wrist watch?"

Mrs. John Sharits, 747 West Water St., Troy, Ohio, solved this problem when she tried the Southern treatment—Vick's VapoRub Salve. She writes:

"We have used Vick's VapoRub Salve on our six children for the

Vick's VapoRub can be used freely with perfect safety on the youngest child. The formula is given on every wrapper. For croup or colds, you just apply it well over the throat and chest and cover with a warm flannel, leaving the covering loose around the neck so the vapors arising from the salve can be inhaled. Croup is usually relieved in fifteen minutes, colds over night.

ELEPHANT MURDERS: IS LEGALLY HANGED

"Murderous Mary's" execution.

Erwin, Tenn., recently witnessed a gruesome sight, when "Murderous Mary," an elephant belonging to a traveling show, was hung for murder after a trial before the town magistrate. The elephant killed one of her attendants shortly after the show reached the town.

Granville

(Special to Advocate.)
Granville, Nov. 24.—It will be good news to motorists to learn that a clear thoroughfare through Granville is assured for this fall, if the weather permits. Progress on Cherry street has been gratifying as the concrete will be finished this week. Main street is wider and will take longer, but the work has gone so well that it is confidently hoped that both streets will be completed this fall. The east end of Broadway is now open to traffic, making a trip through the old time a pleasure instead of the penance it once was.

Mrs. Charles B. White, who was leader of the program at the meeting of the Newark Women's Music club in that city yesterday, used in illustration of De Bussey's music, a double quartet of singers from the Granville club, who gave "The Blessed Damsel"—Mrs. Rohrer, Mrs. Morrow, Mrs. Ogilvie, Mrs. Ullman, Mrs. Ashton, Mrs. Henderson, Mrs. Thompson and Mrs. Stickney. The solos were taken by Mrs. Johnson and Miss La Ferre. Others who went from Granville were Mrs. Colwell, Mrs. C. W. Chamberlain, Miss M. E. Penney and Mrs. Pierson.

Mrs. L. W. Perry has as houseguest her cousin, Miss Hattie Thomas of Ashland.

Mr. C. J. Wright has just purchased a Ford roadster.

Mr. Harry Willis, former assistant cashier at the Granville bank takes possession today of a grocery store on Lane avenue, Columbus, recently purchased by him.

During the past two months the Granville library has received 175 volumes from friends residing in the village and a few who have moved away. Among the names of the donors appear those of Mrs. M. G. ## If Your Children Have Colds Follow Troy Mother's Advice

Mrs. John Sharits Advises Use of the "External" Treatment.

Mothers know how difficult it is to treat children's colds. It seems criminal to give them strong internal medicine, and yet their colds can not be neglected.

Mrs. John Sharits, 747 West Water St., Troy, Ohio, solved this problem when she tried the Southern treatment—Vick's VapoRub Salve. She writes:

"We have used Vick's VapoRub Salve on our six children for the

Vick's VapoRub can be used freely with perfect safety on the youngest child. The formula is given on every wrapper. For croup or colds, you just apply it well over the throat and chest and cover with a warm flannel, leaving the covering loose around the neck so the vapors arising from the salve can be inhaled. Croup is usually relieved in fifteen minutes, colds over night.

Three sizes, 25c, 50c or $1.00.

WHY ENTERPRISE "HAS IT ON" NEWARK IN PROMOTION OF WEALTH AND HAPPINESS

(With Apologies to George Ade)
 There was a MAN who lived in Newark, Ohio, and earned a GOODLY wage. He built a COMFORTABLE home, reared a FAMILY and considered himself a GOOD citizen.

He CLAMORED with his neighbors for more PUBLIC improvements and when the REVENUES of the city did not permit of such things as rapidly as needed, this man criticized the PUBLIC officials and wanted to KNOW what was the MATTER with the TOWN.

He also did MOST of his TRADING in OTHER cities and only bought of HOME merchants as a last resort. One day this man went to a neighboring city which, for the purpose of this parable, shall be called ENTERPRISE. He was amazed at the beautiful parks and playgrounds, swimming pools, free public library, the well equipped public buildings, municipal band concerts and many modes of entertainment at PUBLIC expense.

"Why MY city is larger than Enterprise," quoth he. "What is the secret of Enterprise's SUCCESS?" And they told him CO-OPERATION, yea even to BUYING at HOME. "We build up our HOME merchants and HOME institutions by giving them the preference. Our DOLLARS remain among US to enrich OURSELVES. Even as charity beginneth at HOME, so doth WISE dealing in Commerce," said they.

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Newark, that this moral may be driven home to thyself and kindred during the "Shop Early and at Home" campaign, which begins Tuesday, December 5, is the plea of the PUBLICITY Bureau, Chamber of Commerce, which stands for a Better, Busier and Bigger Newark.

Thursday evening, when she will go to Youngstown, Ohio.

Mrs. William Streck of Newark accompanied Mrs. Howard to Garrett and is a guest of friends.

Some people are so color blind that even when they have the long green they think they have the blues.

"Marriage is a tie," said the Wise Guy. "Yes, very often a forget-me-knot," added the Simple Mug.

Love thinks of Paradise by day and dreams of Heaven by night.

Affirmed by Two Grateful Mothers.

The use of Nerv-Worth for children whose weakness and ill health are due to nervous ailments is giving this great family tonic more and more popularity every day.

Two mothers, living in or near Zanesville have made telling signed statements to this effect. Here is the first one:

Nerv-Worth Co.:—We read your advertisement in the paper and determined to try your Nerv-Worth for our little girl, who is 7 years old. She was afflicted with bed-wetting and nervousness. She was so bad she could not talk well. We gave her one and a half bottles (of Nerv-Worth) and she improved wonderfully. She can talk well now and she has filled out and gained in flesh. We are all taking it now as it has proved a wonderful help to all the family.

MRS. JOHN DIETENBECK.

And here is the second:
Nerv-Worth Co.:—For some time past our boy, who is 11 years old, was troubled with nervousness. He had a very poor appetite and was restless at night.

We gave him two bottles of Nerv-Worth and he got better at once. HE IS STRONG AND WELL NOW and can eat and sleep fine.

MRS. CLARA C. DUDLEY.
